Escola Técnica Superior de Arquitectura

ETSAC

1975
2015

1989
2014

UNIVERSIDADE DA CORUÑA

2017_ETSAC_data

-A Coruña School of Architecture, ETSAC, is one of the top schools of architecture in the country and the only public one in NW Spain

-ETSAC was founded in 1975: an exciting forty-year educational experience

-1,600 students

-120 teachers (55% PhD)

-Ratio: 13.33 students per teacher

-EAAE and Uniscape membership

-Degree in Architectural Studies: 5 years, 300 ECTS

-200 first-year new students

-English programme since 2014: itinerary with over 60% of the credits

-Master´s Degree in Architecture: 1 year, 60 ECTS. Required for the professional practice of architecture

-Master´s Degree in Architectural Renovation: 1 year, 60 ECTS

-Master´s Degree in Landscape Architecture: 1 year, 60 ECTS. University of A Coruña and University of Santiago

-PhD programme in Architecture and Urbanism

-Three Departments: Department of Architectural Design, Urbanism and Composition, Department of Building Technology and Construction and Department of Graphical Expression

-Academic facilities: two buildings, one for educational purposes and another one for research

-ETSAC Library (2nd largest in Spain): 60,000 issues related to architecture, urban studies, landscape and design

-Ofab: ETSAC digital fabrication laboratory with a state-of-the-art equipment

-BAc: Our international magazine on architectural research since 1985, published in Spanish and English

-Exchange programmes (Erasmus and Bilateral) involving teachers and students: more than 80 outgoing + 110 incoming students from 15 countries, mainly Europe and Latin America

-Large international joint ventures: Iacobus programme with the schools of Clermont-Ferrand (France) and Regensburg (Germany) since 1998, PUCMM Master´s Degrees (Dominican Republic) since 2002 , Joint Graduate Design Project with Harbin Institute of Technology (China) and Inner Mongolia Institute of Technology (China) since 2014

-Internship: 60 students training in studios

-ETSAC is permanently and successfully going through a FIDES-AUDIT (ENQUA) quality process in terms of procedures, teaching and facilities

-More information: http://etsa.udc.es/web/